License Agreement and Copyright Notice for the Coal Pricing Report

Subscribers shall not sell Coaldesk's Coal Pricing Report or otherwise distribute the report to any company or organization. The license agreement prohibits forwarding email publications and/or printing and distributing copies without prior written authorization from Daniel Vaughn. Written authorization is waived for occasional needs to circulate the publication internally among company personnel who are not on Coaldesk's email distribution list. Unresolved copyright violations will terminate the subscription agreement with no refund.

Note: This product is considered a multi-client professional service agreement whereas Daniel Vaughn provides independent market price discovery for the coal industry.

Annual Subscription Rates for 2020 (subscription rates remain unchanged from prior year)

Daily Complete: $2520 for up to eight (8) email accounts per company
Friday with Weekly Recap: $1920 for up to eight (8) email accounts per company
Friday w/o Weekly Recap: $1320 for up to four (4) email accounts per company (no Weekly Recap)
Weekly Recap Only: $1200 (included with Daily and Site License subscriptions)
Site License Subscription: $4800 for up to thirty (30) email accounts per company

Other than Site License, additional email addresses above the base level can be added for an extra charge.

The Coal Pricing Report is sent via email around 3:30 pm CPT each day with the exception of holidays. The Weekly Recap is sent out on Monday mornings around 9:00 am CPT.

The Daily Subscription service entitles subscribers to receive close-of-business daily coal price report. It also includes a weekly OTC coal market recap report summarizing the prior week's OTC trade volumes, price movement, and bullet points on notable market news. Special data request of historical pricing and/or other relevant (limited) data as it pertains to the OTC market is also provided.

Subscription fees are structured on a calendar year basis and are invoiced each January. First time subscribers will have their subscriptions pro-rated from their start date through year's end. All renewal invoices are sent in the month of January unless otherwise requested by the client. Payment is due upon receipt. Subscribers are not obligated to renew. Non-payment of renewal notice will serve as subscriber's election to cease the subscription.

Refund/Termination Policy

Subscribers may cancel a subscription at any time and refunds will be pro-rated for the balance of the subscription less a 20% of the subscription rate. Prospectus subscribers receive a two-week free trial.

Market Price Information and Disclaimer

Daniel Vaughn assesses daily coal market prices based on verifiable market information and on actual reported trades. His independent views should not be construed as absolute or be used as a recommendation to buy or sell.
